Old Business

- Zone Meeting – Lion Frank Kinald. February 9 meeting. Four of six Clubs present. Georgetown Evening Club had strong attendance. Speaker on Early Childhood Screening program with the District. First Vice-District Governor Gary Cocanougher spoke. Has most cabinet positions filled. Next Zone Meeting on April 20, time and place TBD.
- Restaurant Fund Raisers –
 - Mama Fu's restaurant fund raiser. 20% of food contribution. Boss Lion Bill will contact them. We will meet there on Tuesday, April 12 at Mama Fu's. We will also do April 13. Boss Lion Bill will confirm reservation and Lion Bob will notify Alycia once reserved. No program that night.
 - Fish City Grill – Tuesday, June 7. Lion Frank Kinald working to contact them.
 - Catfish Parlor – Lion Randy will look to contact them about a date in October.
 - Mimi's Café – Lion Adrien discussed his experience with them in attending a fundraiser there for ROCK. 15% of coupon receipts received that day. Will give us 100 flyers. Not located in Georgetown, by the Outlet Mall on I-35.
- Bowling Tournament - Lion Kristin Kinald
36 bowlers for $825 in entrance fees. 50-50 raffles netted $311. One 300 game bowler. $500 additional funding received to apply to receipts. Total is $1539. We were asked to place an eyeglass box at the alley. We now have an eyeglass box at Mel's.
- Tree Planting – February 26, 9am at Katy Crossing Park, Georgetown, TX. Wear your Club t-shirts.
